Undergraduate Courses

DIS 380 Foundations Disability & Diversity

Focuses on disability as a category of diversity and identity, as well as diversity within disability. Different strategies used to increase the freedom or liberty of people with disabilities are critically examined. This is an excellent foundational course with content applicable and relevant to all fields of study. Instructor Lauren Ho, lauren.ho@hawaii.edu. Online, 3 Credits, CRN: 97230, Summer Session I, 5/21/2018 - 6/29/2018

Graduate Courses

DIS 675C Supporting Multilingual Learners: Tech

Using technology is an effective way to connect with students of all learning styles and provide alternative ways to teaching. This course is designed as a guide for teachers who are interested in using simple computer and internet applications to supplement their classroom lessons and increase student engagement and achievement. Instructor Mautumua Porotesano, mautumua@hawaii.edu. Online, 3 Credits, CRN: 96974, Summer I & II, 5/21/2018 - 8/10/2018

DIS 682 Special Topics in Disability “Telling Our Stories”: Auto/biographical Portraits of Disability

This course invites participants to explore what happens when personal histories are told across different platforms. Tapping insights from Disability Studies and the emerging field of Transmedia (storytelling across different platforms), this interactive course examines examples of personal histories told in different forms, and invites participants, using simple digital authoring tools, to draw upon personal histories, primary documents, and personal accounts to create auto/biographical portraits. The course will interrogate assumptions about disability and deepen our understanding of the ways in which storytelling format may shape auto/biographical portraits. Instructor, Raphael Raphael raphael@hawaii.edu. Online, 3 Credits, CRN: 96973, Summer I, 5/21/2018 - 6/29/2018
